

Looking Back On The Past Year

Highlights From Daddy Jim

- Smoke on the Water was moved to the pavilion at the Baltimore Museum of Industry to the favor of all those attending. It was a huge success with the addition of the poker table, black jack and roulette wheel. A check for $10,000.00 was given to former Baltimore Colt Lenny Moore, President of the Ed Block Courage Awards Foundation for the benefit of abused children.
- Son Michael Pecunes shows his family dedication and works three all-nighters at the shoppe to install brick pavers in the humidior to help stabilize the humidity.
- We initiated the second Friday of each month for tasting events at the shoppe—showcasing various cigar lines, discount pricing on featured cigars, and wonderful catering by The Barron.
- The entire Pecunes clan spent Memorial Weekend installing the new computer system with the advent of our own bar code system to enable better and faster service to our customers. Hopefully Daddy Jim will know the new system by next Memorial Day.

The Humidour Family Pages...

Finnie's Dad

Daddy Jim is attempting to recover both physically and financially from Finnie's "Big Fat Greek/Italian Wedding" which was held on November 1, 2003. His hours at the store will probably be increased so Finnie can get home to prepare dinner nightly (if only she could cook!). Jim's real estate sales with Gil Marsiglia are going well and he would love to help anyone needing such resources.

Mama P

In the wake of Finnie's wedding, it's noteworthy to honor Mama P. for all of the preparation and sacrifice she made leading up to the wedding. Her home became the center of operations leading up to the big day with the preparation of the Greek sweets, the center pieces, and more, followed by the rehearsal dinner with 175 guests on Halloween night. And if that wasn't enough, the day after the wedding, Mama P. graciously opened up her house again to everyone still in town for yet, another party. To say the least, Mama P. is a saint!

Dean, Laura, Jacob

Dean with his computer career continues to keep the shoppe up and running and was greatly responsible for our new bar coding system. Laura, at the beginning of the year, joined the staff at the shoppe and was also very instrumental in getting our new system going. Jacob is in the 6th grade and very active in tennis and golf and conning his grandparents into taking him to Disney World and Myrtle Beach.

Ben, Andrea, Dimitri, Yianni, Aleksander, Nicholas, and Madeline

Ben continues to expand his painting company and also his cigar manufacturing company. This year he renamed his company "Pecunes Tobacco Co." in honor of his grandfather who was a wholesale distributor for 40 years. He also added a new cigar line- BIKER'S BLEND, which recently received a strong rating from Smoke Magazine. Continuing in the Pecunes tradition, Ben and Andrea are expecting a new edition to the family—a baby girl due in February.

Tony, Doreen, Marilyn, Stevie, Trina, Demi

Tony continues his long hours at The Barron in Lexington Market and has become the shoppe's exclusive caterer for our monthly tastings (second Friday of each month) and our tent events. Doreen is in full throttle as a soccer mom and trying to keep up with the twins. In July, they hosted, with the help of brothers and sisters, a very successful 40th anniversary surprise party for Mom and Dad. After 40 years with Dad, the Greek-Orthodox church is taking under consideration an Icon of Mama P.

Mike, Krissa, Harry, Zachary

The family is very proud to announce Mike's new career, and new company—Design & Build Construction. When Mike and Krissa got married the plan was for parenting to be put on hold for a few years. As you know, Harry was born 7/1/02 and shortly thereafter Krissa was pregnant with Zachary who was born on 10/13/03. With all of this unexpected instant family their 2BR log home in White Hall was quickly outgrown. They are building a 4BR colonial in Shrewsbury and will be in for the holidays (hopefully!!).

Chris and Finnie

Well the day of the "Big Fat Greek/Italian Wedding" occurred on November 1st. for our beloved Finnie. To say the least, she was beautiful and radiating the entire day. Chris cleaned up very nicely also. There were just shy of 400 in attendance. Great food, drinks, and cigars were enjoyed by all. (A special thanks to Ron Carr for handling the store that weekend & Robert Brando of Susquehanna Bank for Dad's loan).

Angie

She is still chasing Dave Mathews Band across the country and being sought out by many to be the Nanny for their children. She really is incredible with children. Angie has been put on official notice that there can be no wedding for her until Finnie's is paid off!

Matt

With over a year at the Shoppe under his belt, Matt has really come of age. His acquired knowledge of the tobacco business and his personality has won over just about all of the customers in the shoppe. He is becoming an avid golfer and is driving the ball a ton!
