

Looking Back On The Past Year... A Letter From Daddy Jim.

- Our year began with a legislative battle in Annapolis. With an intense presentation in hand, Finnie challenged the proposed smoking ban once again. The ban did not pass, however; be assured that we will have to do it all over again in 2006. Thanks to the RTDA and many loyal customers who contacted their representatives, your support was critical and will be next year too.
- Our tastings on the second Friday of each month have become an established tradition at The Humidour. Enclosed is our first ever Humidour Events Calendar (for 2006). Posted in this calendar are: Monthly Tastings, Smoke on the Water, Our Ninth Year Anniversario Party, Cigars and Bars, etc.
- Smoke on the Water at the Baltimore Museum of Industry SOLD OUT weeks prior to our event! Thanks to all the participating vendors, they agreed to have an additional 50 cigars on hand. We sold those 50 tickets in a few hours! The affair was "phenomenal"! Check out over 300 pictures from the evening on our website, www.humidour.com. We donated $10,000 to the Adalius Thomas S.L.A.S.H. Fund and $5,000 to Survivor Diver. As for next year, save the date (May 18, 2006) and get your tickets early!!!
- This year, Baltimore Raven Adalius Thomas #96, has truly learned what Greeks are all about. At his request, Adalius asked Finnie to be the chairperson for his Annual Charity Golf Tournament (reminding you - Finnie has never golfed!). He saw her organizational skills at Smoke on the Water, but he never could have imagined the Pecunes sisters, Doreen, Finne and Angie, could create a truly memorable and successful event! The respect that Adalius has from his teammates, fans, friends and family were truly visible throughout the tournament. Quite a testimonial to one of our more professional athletes. It turned out to be a great day of golf and fun with the Greek Girls.
- We participated in cigar dinners and golf tournaments at Hillendale Country Club, Country Club of Maryland and Country Club of York and were honored to meet some really fine people.
- In September we celebrated our Eight Year Anniversario with Aylin of CAO International. Customer response was huge and they were truly rewarded with a ton of give-aways from CAO International and The Humidour. It really is hard to believe that eight years have passed since we opened our doors. There are some signs on how old we are. Those fabulous old leather chairs were auctioned for the Hurricane Victims. The new recliners are in the up mode most of the time. Cabinets too small to hold our selection of humidors have been replaced with open shelves to accommodate over 30 different styles of humidors. A new cabinet humidor has been added to hold our special and limited edition cigars. More improvements are scheduled after the holidays.

The Humidour Family Pages...

Daddy Jim and Mama P.

Between the hours at the shoppe and his real estate career, his golf game has really taken a back position this year. When time permits, he truly enjoys taking off in his motor home with Mama P. If only he could just get her into golf and combine the two. Mama P's full time duties with her "13" grandchildren keep her moving all the time. She has also spent considerable time with her family in Detroit this year, leaving Daddy Jim home alone. This leaves Doreen and Finnie to do his laundry since Angie won't touch dirty socks.

Dean, Laura and Jacob

Dean (AKA CEO of Ravens Tailgating) continues to tailgate for every Ravens game no matter how the team is doing. Following football season, he gears up for the Jimmy Buffet concerts and golf. Laura continues part-time at the shoppe. She also keeps busy working on crafts so she can participate in craft shows -she is "The Crafty Mama". Taking after his father, Jacob has become a computer genius too. Jacob is in his last year of middle school and still playing the trumpet (at least he carries it back and forth to school).

Ben, Andrea and Family

Ben has had a very successful year with his painting business. His cigars, Biker's Blend, have also smoked in sales, so stop by to light one up. He continues to coach his boys in soccer and lacrosse. Andrea sure is the busy mommy not only to their six children, but also as a daycare provider to many others. Dimitri, Yianni, Nicholas, Alecsander, and Madeline all participate in after school sports and continue to improve academically and athletically each year. Isabella has become the energizer bunny - she keeps going and going and going.

Tony, Doreen and Family

The mixed marriage (Ravens/Steelers) has become a big part of this family. Tony continues his long days at The Barron in Lexington Market. His catering has been quite the hit both at Smoke on the Water and our monthly tasting events. Doreen has now been given the title of "Public Relations for The Humidour Cigar Shoppe". The shoppe has not been the same ever since. Marilyn is the soccer diva of Sparks. Stevie is also very active in sports and still trying to convince his mom into letting him play football. Someday he wants to be on the Ravens (beating the Steelers). Trina and Demi are the dress-up princesses and can shake their booty to any beat.

Mike, Krissa, Harry, Zachary

Mike's construction company has grown beyond his wildest dreams. He also is busy praying for many blizzards this winter to help pay off his new snowplow. Krissa continues to deliver babies at John's Hopkins. They recently purchased a motor home to travel around the globe with Daddy Jim and Mama P. Harry is the Valedictorian of Pre-school and loves his fire trucks. Zach (AKA Trouble) with his spiked blonde hair is the coolest kid on the neighborhood block.

Chris and Finnie

Another mixed marriage (Ravens/Eagles) in this family, Chris and Finnie enjoy spending time in front of their big screen watching the games on Sunday. Chris continues to build beautiful houses in Worthington Valley for Columbia Builders. He also travels back to Philadelphia to be with family and friends. Finnie continues to enjoy planning events for the shoppe. She also has been appointed to the Executive Board of the Retail Tobacco Dealers of America.

Angie and Matt

With the soaring real estate prices over the past three years, Matt and Angie became real estate tycoons and purchased a new condo in Bel Air. The deal is that Matt lives there and Angie only visits per Daddy Jim's strict instruction. Look for Matt driving the big brown truck! Don't forget to tell him how much you love his UPS shorts. Look for Angie driving a brand new VW bug convertible to all the sunny beaches. During the week, she can be seen in her Nanny SUV's with kids of all ages.

Nia

Nia joined The Humidour Family a year ago and already is loved by all. She is finishing up her last year at Mount St. Mary's University and will be graduating in May with a Bachelor in Science (Biology and Psychology). She is playing a final season for the Mount Women's Lacrosse team, who hopes to make their third consecutive visit to the NCAA tournament.

George

George, when not working at the shoppe, remains a passionate Ravens fan and hopes to someday be a sports agent for some of the players. He continues to take classes at Essex Community College, with aspirations of transferring to West Virginia University next year.

Reggie

Reggie started an accounting firm right here in Timonium. We wish him much success. He also has discovered the joys of tequila, in addition to his cigars. You can spot him dancing the night away at the Havana Club. If you see him there, make sure you ask him for a cigar from our humidior locker.

Ron

Ron spends a lot of time in the car traveling back and forth to work in Annapolis. He still enjoys helping out at the shoppe whenever there is a family function.

Bill

Bill is the newest edition to the shoppe helping out part-time in the evenings. He really knows his cigars so do not hesitate to ask for his advice.
